

Mudzini Cultural Centre – Code of Ethics

1. Integrity and Accountability

Mudzini Cultural Centre is committed to honesty, transparency, and accountability in all its activities. We ensure that all resources are used responsibly and for their intended purposes.

2. Respect for Culture and Diversity

We respect and promote the cultural heritage, traditions, and values of all communities. We are committed to inclusivity, non-discrimination, and equal opportunity regardless of age, gender, religion, or background.

3. Community-Centered Approach

We prioritize the needs, voices, and participation of the community in all our programs. We work collaboratively to ensure that our initiatives are meaningful and beneficial to those we serve.

4. Professionalism and Responsibility

All members, staff, and volunteers of the Centre are expected to act with professionalism, respect, and responsibility in their duties and interactions.

5. Safeguarding and Protection

We are committed to creating a safe environment for all, especially children and vulnerable groups. Any form of abuse, exploitation, or harassment is strictly prohibited.

6. Transparency in Financial Management

We maintain accurate financial records and strive for transparency in all financial matters. Funds are managed responsibly and in line with donor and organizational requirements.

7. Environmental Responsibility

We promote sustainable practices and respect for the environment in all our activities.

8. Compliance with Laws and Regulations

Mudzini Cultural Centre operates in accordance with all applicable local laws and regulations.

9. Conflict of Interest

All members must avoid situations where personal interests conflict with the interests of the organization. Any potential conflicts must be disclosed.

10. Commitment to Learning and Improvement

We are committed to continuous learning, reflection, and improvement to enhance our impact and effectiveness.
